	12:00– 7:00pm	Change of Plans for Hiroshima/Nagasaki Commemoration (Off-Site at Dewey Square in Downtown Boston). For the last 15 years our Peace and Social Justice Committee has commemorated the atomic bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki with a gathering at FMC with a public reading of Thomas Merton's meditation "Original Child Bomb," a period of personal sharing, and a procession to the Charles River to float candles or origami cranes. The year we're doing something different. In an act of solidarity and community networking on the 80th anniversary of the bombing of Hiroshima, we are joining Greater Boston Physicians for Social Responsibility and Massachusetts Peace Action (MAPA) for a longer commemoration in Dewey Square, Boston on August 6th from noon to 7:00pm. As plans develop, we will share info regarding our participation. More details and the schedule can be found here or by contacting John Bach at bolder@fmcquaker.org .
Thu 7	7:00– 8:30pm	The Witness of Ramallah Friends School in This Time of Uncertainty (Parlor / Open Zoom). Rania Maayah, Head of the Ramallah Friends School, will share updates from a challenging year. How does the school hold fast to values like integrity, peace, and resilience during a war? How can education be a faithful witness? We'll explore how community is nurtured under pressure, and what it means to sustain hope in a challenging world and during the most difficult times. Light refreshments served. To participate using Zoom, click this link or provide the meeting ID 783 475 1861 and passcode 1652 (if requested) on Zoom.com , the Zoom app, or after calling 1-646-558-8656.
