Sun 30 12:15pm	Closing Reception for Quaker Images & Icons Show. This special exhibit was compiled by Sara Sue Pennell. The inspiration for putting up these images was Sara Sue remembering the picture of Elizabeth Frye visiting the women in Newgate Prison which hung in the Parlor at FMC. Sara Sue writes "I spent many hours in meetings pondering it. [It was] taken down ...and after a flurry of trying to put up more relevant images we decided on the plain walls. I like the plain walls very well but remember Elizabeth Frye with some fondness."	George Campbell exhibits@fmcquaker.org

Thinking of offering a workshop? The deadline is June 14th. The cost of attending is pay-as-you-are-lead with suggested amounts posted with the registration information.
