Fri 24	6:30– 9:00pm RSVP for pizza at 5:45 pm and for the Zoom link	Screening of Sugarcane Documentary and Discussion (Friends Room / Zoom). This Oscar-nominated 1 hour 47 minute film investigates abuse at a Canadian Indian residential school. It depicts St. Joseph's School mistreating students and hiding many student deaths. Bravely, Native investigators and survivors bear witness to painful truths. Love endures within their families despite the genocide. Many tender and healing rituals unfold. This movie explains the violence, without any graphic violence. We will offer queries and emotional support. Be prepared, the movie does not dodge the abuse. Neither should we. Bring Kleenex. We will try to provide childcare, if you make a request in advance to childcarerequest@fmcquaker.org . Doors open at 5:45 for pizza (register at forj@fmcquaker.org so we know how many/preferences for pizza and also for the Zoom link). Donations (suggested $10-$20) will go to a local Indigenous organization. Contact Minga Claggett-Borne at forj@fmcquaker.org
