

Meet Kirenia Criado

Cuban Quaker Traveling Minister

The "Malecon" along Havana's waterfront

6pm Sunday, July 20, 2025

*Potluck dinner at the Borne's home in Cambridge
Bring a full heart — interpretation available*

RSVP by July 19 to rsvp@thebornes.org

Kirenia Criado is a person not to miss. She is a 4th generation Cuban Quaker who bridges gender and generational divides. She is a social activist working at the Martin Luther Center in Havana, and a pastor at Havana Monthly Meeting. She has advocated in Cuban society for LGBTQ rights. She is traveling in New England as a guest Bible study speaker August 1-6 at New England Yearly Meeting sessions.